Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teacher of Literacy and Numeracy Intervention position at St Bede's College. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your learning support team.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive expertise working with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, combined with specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, have equipped me with comprehensive skills to support students requiring targeted intervention.

Throughout my career, I have developed a proven track record of curriculum adaptation and personalized learning strategies. My approach focuses on creating supportive, engaging learning environments that accommodate individual student needs while maintaining high academic standards. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has consistently enabled students to overcome learning challenges and achieve their potential.

St Bede's College's commitment to inclusive education aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to apply my specialized skills in literacy and numeracy intervention, utilizing evidence-based strategies to support students' academic growth.

My multilingual background and patient, compassionate teaching approach have been instrumental in developing positive relationships with students, their families, and colleagues. I am enthusiastic about contributing my expertise to your school's supportive learning community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to St Bede's College's educational objectives.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
