Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y7 and 8 middle school teaching position at William Colenso College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's learning environment.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education, with extensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with students diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing tailored learning strategies that empower each student to reach their full potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to adaptive and inclusive teaching methods.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I am well-versed in the local curriculum and pedagogical approaches. My background in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification allows me to create supportive, engaging learning experiences that meet individual student needs while maintaining high educational standards.

William Colenso College's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to student development strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to bring my specialized skills in learning support and inclusive education to your middle school program.

My multilingual background and patient, empathetic approach enable me to connect with students from diverse backgrounds, creating a supportive and dynamic classroom environment. I am passionate about helping students discover their strengths and build confidence in their learning journey.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills align with William Colenso College's educational objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com