Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A teacher position at St Joseph's School in Stratford. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have worked extensively with children diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing specialized teaching strategies that promote individual growth and academic success. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to adaptive and comprehensive educational approaches.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I am well-prepared to deliver high-quality, curriculum-aligned instruction. My approach emphasizes personalized learning, curriculum adaptation, and creating supportive environments where every student can thrive. I am particularly skilled in behavior modification techniques and understanding early childhood developmental stages.

St Joseph's School's commitment to inclusive education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating classroom environments that celebrate diversity, support individual learning differences, and foster each student's potential. My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs make me a uniquely qualified candidate for this role.

I am excited about the possibility of joining your school team and contributing to your educational community during this transitional appointment. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with St Joseph's School's educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
