Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Preschool Teacher position at Nurture Early Learning Red Beach. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for young children.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive expertise in supporting children with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with students diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a professionally registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a nuanced understanding of early childhood development and specialized pedagogical approaches.

My qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language (Module 1 & 2) training, which enables me to communicate effectively with children who have diverse communication requirements. My approach emphasizes personalized learning strategies, curriculum adaptation, and positive behavior modification techniques that support each child's unique developmental journey.

Nurture Early Learning's commitment to holistic, child-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your school's reputation for creating nurturing, inclusive environments that celebrate individual potential. My experience in special educational needs has consistently demonstrated that every child can thrive when provided with compassionate, tailored support.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and passion to your exceptional team. My background in Foundation Phase education, combined with my specialized training, positions me to make a meaningful impact in your preschool setting.

I look forward to discussing how my experience aligns with Nurture Early Learning's educational goals.

Kind regards,
